10 OCT 1963

Dear Mr. McCone

Success of the USAF Intelligence Reserve Seminar which we held on 3 October 1963 was due in considerable measure to the contributions by Dr. Sherman Kent, Mr. Lyman Kirkpatrick and Mr. Arthur Lundahl of your organization.

The CIA briefing topics were not easy to develop, because the subject matter was so broad, the time so limited, and the experience level of the audience was so varied. Nevertheless, Dr. Kent, Mr. Kirkpatrick, and Mr. Lundahl each did remarkably well, both in well-prepared presentations and frank responses to questions.

who served as CIA project officer and moderator of the briefings also warrants our sincere thanks.

STAT

As a matter of interest, I am inclosing a copy of the seminar program. This is an annual effort on our part to bring our mobilization reservists up to date. The professional level attained was due in no small measure to the cooperation afforded us by the CIA.

Sincerely

JACK E. THOMAS
Brigadier General, USAF
Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence
